Bachofen sells shares to Lenze

Lenze Bachofen AG becomes a wholly owned subsidiary of Lenze SE

Aerzen, 6 May 2025 – Bachofen Holding AG is selling its 51% share in Lenze Bachofen AG to Lenze SE as part of its succession planning. This makes Lenze SE the sole owner of Lenze Bachofen AG.

Daniel Bachofen, representative of Bachofen Holding AG, comments: "We are delighted to have found a suitable buyer in Lenze. This secures the future of our employees and locations."

Dr Marc Wucherer, CEO of Lenze SE, adds: "The complete takeover opens up additional development opportunities for our market position in Switzerland. This integration will enable us to meet the requirements of our customers, employees and suppliers even more comprehensively."

Lenze Bachofen AG will operate under the name Lenze Switzerland AG after the change in the register entries. Konrad Meier will remain Managing Director.

About Bachofen Holding

Following the sale of Bachofen AG to the French company Descours & Cabaud in mid-March 2025, Bachofen Holding AG is also organising the future of its second industrial holding by selling its shares in Lenze Bachofen AG to the previous co-shareholder Lenze SE.

Bachofen Holding AG continues to hold the shares in Bachofen Immobilien AG, which in turn leases the commercial property in Uster to Bachofen AG under a long-term rental agreement.

About Lenze

Lenze is a leading drive and automation specialist for mechanical and plant engineering. For more than 77 years, the company has been setting the pace in automation and a strong partner at its customers' side. With the help of the triad of electromechanics, electronics and software, Lenze supports its customers and helps them to optimise production and logistics processes, cut costs and reduce their energy consumption.

The Lenze Group, based in Aerzen, employs more than 3,600 people worldwide and is represented in 45 countries. Group-wide, the company generated a turnover of 828 million euros in the 2023/2024 financial year.
